

Stephane Thouin
Marketing & Social Media Manager

Since 1999, Stephane has known that the future of advertising lay with the internet. Television ads had become too expensive, no one read magazines or newspapers anymore. The internet became the target of choice for many companies who wished to promote their brand. And Stephane was there to help them do it.

He has an extensive background in database management, website design, as well as sales and marketing. With that experience, he founded Interlink Management, an Internet Marketing firm specializing in social media management as well as lead prospecting and generating. He also works very closely with the aboriginal population across the country to help them get connected with the world via the internet.

Whether it be on Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter or Instagram, Stephane has the knowledge and ability to help take any business to the next level.

Past Work Experience:

2008 – Present: Interlink Management, Inc. (President and CEO)

2002 – 2008: Executive Solutions, Inc. (Sales Manager)

1999 – 2002: Horizon Data, Inc: (Sales Manager)
